Zone Two and Beyond . . . $2.00

The city government will charge hands before another issue of the press. Here's wishing the new management a smooth voyage. The old management did well with the money they had to expend. The streets have been well lighted but at a tremendous cost.

Certainly none of the officers are overpaid and no great deal of work has been done on the streets for a lack of funds. There is much complaint of city taxes but we can not have good streets without taxes to pay for improvements unless the citizens all, like a few have done, make special contributions for the improvement of the streets.

Fellow citizens we will be compelled to stand together for a better and a bigger Marion. Let us have pride and self respect enough to do our bit in co-operation for improvement. Go forward and not backward.

GRATHWELL UNFOLDS INTERESTING SECRET ABOUT YOUR "HOODOO"

"Getting by Your Hoodoo" is Sam Grathwell's lecture subject on his present tour with the Affiliated Lyceum Bureaus. This popular young lecturer "got by" his "hoodoo" several years ago and today he is one of the most popular of the younger lecturers of the American platform. For his years now he has been in lyceum work in the states and Canada. He presents high ideals in a manner which especially appeals to young people.

His delivery is a composite of force and humor, backed by a pleasing and dramatic personality.

NATURAL HISTORY LESSON

The grasshopper can jump 200 times its length.

The microscope will show the musquito has 27 teeth.

The caterpillar's range of vision is only two-fifths of an inch.

The codfish, the goat of the sea,
apparently will eat anything.

The gorilla, the largest of the apes,
often reaches the height of 6 feet.

The whale, nature's submarine, is known to descend 8000 feet below the surface of the sea.

Scientific computation has established that 10,000 threads of the web of a full-grown spider are not larger than a single hair of a man's beard.

The starfish makes excellent fertilizer. An analysis shows that this fish contains nearly 5 per cent nitrogen and a small percentage of phosphoric acid.

WORDS OF WISE MEN

The worst attitude is to have no true friendship.

He is most powerful who has himself in his own power.

Leture cannot be fully enjoyed unless it is won by effort.

The greatest natural genius cannot subsist on his own stock.

That is more important than talent—always remember that people are more easily led than driven.

RAILROAD PLAN TO GET RATES DOWN

PROPOSE TO REDUCE WAGES AND RETURN ALL THE SAVINGS BY REDUCTION IN CHARGES.

FULL TEXT OF PROPOSAL

Statement By Thomas Dawitt Culp,
Chairman of the Association of Railway Executives, on the Situation.

Following a meeting in Chicago, October 14, 1921, of the presidents of nearly all the leading railroads in the country Mr. Thomas Dawitt Culp, chairman of the Association of Railway Executives, made the following statement:

At a meeting of the Association of Railway Executives today I was determined by the railroad men of the United States to seek to bring about a reduction in rates and a consequent that end to seek a reduction in wages and to return the savings to the public by reduction in charges.

An application will be made immediately to the Federal Reserve Board for a reduction in the rate of discount on the basis of the reduction in wages of the railroad men. The board will be asked to reduce the rate of discount from 6 per cent to 4 per cent.
The board will be asked to reduce the rate of discount from 6 per cent to 4 per cent.

To Reduce Rates as Wages Go Down
The foregoing action is being taken understanding that the reduction in wages will be a temporary measure.

The management has decided upon when the government took charge of wages through the Adamson act, the labor cost of the railroads had not exceeded the sum of $1,400,000,000 annually. In 1920 when governmental authorities made the labor cost increase the labor cost of the railroads was about $1,400,000,000 annually. It is estimated that the labor cost of the railroads for the eight months ending October 1st of this year was about $1,400,000,000. It is estimated

Illinois Central System Points to Its Leadership in Passenger Service

The existence of a railway system is justified by its ability to serve the public with transportation. The measure of its service is the measure of its worth. As one example of its high standing, the Illinois Central System invites the attention of the public to those things which are indicative of its capacity for efficient passenger transportation service.

Much depends upon personnel. As an organization the Illinois Central System is composed of a body of 60,000 faithful and efficient workers. Its officers have advanced through the ranks of the service, thus acquiring the practical experience for intelligent supervision. The efforts of the organization are concentrated on making the Illinois Central System, in point of service, the outstanding railway system in the United States; and that means in the world, for American railroads have long held, and continue to hold, the leadership of the world in efficient transportation service.

Much depends upon equipment. Up-to-date and well-maintained equipment is the first essential to passenger service of the high type which the Illinois Central System strives to give at all times. For years the Illinois Central System has been a leader among the railway systems in adding to its equipment, keeping its equipment well maintained and developing its roadway facilities.

The Illinois Central System is a leader in the amount of steel passenger equipment in use. Sixty percent of the passenger cars on the Illinois Central System are of all-steel or steel-underframe construction. Steel cars are expensive, but they are a generally recognized factor for the safety and comfort of passengers. The latest figures available show the percentage of all-steel and steel-underframe passenger cars in service on the railroads of the country as a whole to be less than 30 per cent.

The passenger on the Illinois Central System is assured of a safe, comfortable trip in a car of good construction and modern convenience, over a smooth-riding track of heavy rail and ties, fully ballasted and well maintained, hauled by a locomotive of sufficient power and in such a condition of maintenance as to give every reasonable assurance of scheduled movement.

For the most part, each locomotive is regularly assigned to the same engineer who takes a personal pride in its condition. This is believed to be one of the reasons for the small number of engine failures on the Illinois Central System, a record which is outstanding among the railroads of the country.

The regularity with which Illinois Central System passenger trains maintain their schedules indicates the high order of our passenger service. The percentage of passenger trains maintaining schedule by months, for 1920 and the current year to November 1 follows:

	1920	1921
January	93.4	97.8
February	96.4	97.8
March	94.0	98.3
April	93.4	98.5
May	94.2	99.2
June	96.4	99.1
July	96.9	99.1
August	96.8	99.1
September	96.7	98.6
October	97.3	98.1
November	97.0
December	93.8
Average	95.5	98.6

The patrons of the Illinois Central System find courteous and sympathetic attention in every department. Employees take great pride in our reputation for courtesy. Service is now the only basis of competition among the railroads. Since rates are standardized the Illinois Central System cannot offer rate bargains to command patronage, but it can offer—and it is constantly developing—the organization, equipment and facilities for unusual service.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

President, Illinois Central System

850 DISASTER DEATH TOLL FOR ONE YEAR

Red Cross Gives $1,871,000 Relief When 65,000 Families Are Made Homeless.

Forty-three disasters, resulting in the death in the United States of 850 persons and the injury of 2,600 called for emergency relief measures and the expenditure of $1,871,000 by the American Red Cross during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921, says an announcement based upon the forthcoming annual report of the Red Cross. These disasters caused property damage estimated at $30,000,000, effected sixty-seven communities and rendered 65,000 families homeless.

The year's disasters were of varying types, including several which previously had never been thought of as falling within that classification. The Red Cross furnished relief in seventeen fires of magnitude, five floods, seven tornadoes or cyclones, one devastating storm, three explosions, including the one in Wall Street, one building accident, two typhoid epidemics, the most serious being that at Salem, Ohio, which affected 10 per cent of the population; one smallpox epidemic, in the republic of Haiti; one train wreck, the race riot at Tulsa, Okla.; the famine in China, emergency relief in famines among the Indians of Alaska, the grasshopper plague in North Dakota and on earthquakes in Italy.

Pueblo Meet Serious
By far the most severe of the disasters in the United States during the period covered by the Red Cross report was the Pueblo flood early in June, 1921. The rehabilitation problem confronting the Red Cross in Pueblo was one of the most difficult in recent years. When the first news of the horror was flashed throughout the country, the American Red Cross National Headquarters responded with a grant of $100,000 for relief work. Governor Shoup of Colorado, appreciating the long and successful experience of the Red Cross in organizing disaster relief work, placed the entire responsibility for the administration of relief in its hands.

In response to appeals from President Harding, Governor Shoup and other governors of western states and through local chapters of the Red Cross and other community organizations, public-spirited citizens brought the total contributed for Pueblo's rehabilitation to more than $225,000.

The terrible havoc wrought by the flood waters to a matter of record more than 2,300 homes were affected and 7,351 persons were left homeless. Estimates of $600,000 as an absolute minimum for rehabilitation were made by Red Cross officials in charge of the relief work.

Fast Work in Wall Street
The Wall Street explosion was notable in that relief workers of the Red Cross were on the scene twenty minutes after the disaster occurred. The race riot at Tulsa also was unique in disaster relief circles in that outside of a small emergency relief fund contributed by the Red Cross, the only relief measures outside the city consisted of the service of social workers, nurses and a trained executive whose object was to assist local forces in directing their own efforts.

In decided contrast with the previous year, only one tornado assumed the proportions of a major disaster. This occurred on April 15, in the border sections of Texas and Arkansas with the city of Texarkana as the center. The significant feature of this disaster relief work was the fact that it covered so much rural territory as to make necessary a large number of relief workers.

The famine in China, necessitating relief expenditures totalling more than $1,000,000 by the American Red Cross was by far the most serious of the foreign disasters in which the Red Cross gave aid.

Build Up Its Machinery

In connection with the administration of disaster relief measures, an increasing effectiveness on the part of the Red Cross to deal with emergencies was manifested during the past year. In 338 chapters of the American Red Cross there have been formed special committees to survey the resources of their respective communities and to be prepared in case of disaster. In others of the 3,602 active chapters a network of communication has been formed through which instantaneous relief may be dispatched to any part of the United States.

That its work in this field may be continued with ever greater effectiveness, the American Red Cross is appealing for widespread renewal of membership during its Annual Roll Call, to be conducted this year from November 11 to 24.

LIFE SAVING CORPS ENROLLMENT 10,000

Growth of Red Cross Life Saving Corps throughout the country continued unabated during the last fiscal year, a summary of the year's achievements by that Red Cross Service shows. There are now 101 corps with a total membership of more than 10,000 members, of which 1,236 are sufficiently skilled in the work to act as examiners. Among the outstanding achievements of the Red Cross in this field during the last year was the organization at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, of what is perhaps the largest life saving corps in the world.

KENTUCKY TURF'S GREAT PROGRESS

In the Last Three Years the Kentucky Jockey Club Has Distributed in Stakes and Purses $3,479,655.00.

THOROUGHBRED YEARLINGS INCREASE IN VALUE.

(From the Lexington (Ky.) Thoroughbred Horse)

It will be of particular interest to the breeders of Thoroughbreds in this State, and to those persons everywhere who own and give horses to review the situation in Kentucky and to show the progress that has been made in the last three years. As the value of stallions and broodmares depends on the quality of their produce, and the ability of that produce to win stakes and purses, a comparison of the present prosperous condition of the turf with other days when prices were low and breeders and turfmen everywhere had cause for complaint will be of value at this time.

Near the history of the turf have Thoroughbreds been so valuable as they are right now. The few barometer in the public market and the auction sales at Saratoga last August showed that, despite the general prostration of business with first horses with intelligence brought the best average in many years. The highest price of the season at Saratoga was $21,000 for the brother to The Porter. Several others were sold for more than $10,000 each and a number of likely looking colts and fillies brought from $2,000 to $7,000 each. The market generally was steady and unspoiled, which is to say it was stable.

The prices were based on the probable earning power of these colts and fillies, and if organizations like the Kentucky Jockey Club did not offer generous stakes and purses it would be impossible to have the market their valuable advantages. Neither would it have been possible for S. C. Hildreth to have paid $125,000 for the brother to Man o' War, $150,000 for Larchmont, or for Benjamin Hark to have paid on a $25,000 colt for the mighty Morvich, or for a number of others to have paid the large prices given for horses with capacity to hold their own in contests on the turf.

Fifteen years ago it was no uncommon thing in Kentucky for turfmen to rub their noses for $100 purses. This year the Kentucky Jockey Club distributed in stakes and purses an average of $12,400 a day to the turfmen, the purse at Churchill Downs at Lexington was under $1,000, and many of them reaching $1,000 and $1,500 each. In 1910 the Kentucky Derby was worth $4,000. Since the existence of the Kentucky Jockey Club, which was organized three years ago, the Kentucky Derby was worth in 1919 over $100,000; in 1920 over $100,000 and in 1921 the Kentucky Jockey Club added $100,000 to the prize. All the other stakes on the turf of the Kentucky Jockey Club at Lexington, Churchill Downs and Latonia have been proportionately increased.

In the three years of its existence the Kentucky Jockey Club has distributed to the turfmen $3,479,655, the greater part of which sum was paid to citizens of Kentucky who own and breed race horses.

Since the Kentucky Legislature in 1918 created the State Racing Commission, we have had cleaner and better racing than ever before, and since the organization of the Kentucky Jockey Club we have had no race of pure purity for breeders and turfmen unequalled in the turf history of this State.

Here are the official figures for the past seventeen years, from 1905 to 1921, inclusive:

1905—	Total number of racing days 135	Total amount of money distributed $420,250.00	The highest purse given was $700 and the lowest $500, and the average was a little more than $400 each.
1906—	Total number of racing days 174	Total amount of money distributed $517,380.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1907—	Total number of racing days 110	Total amount of money distributed $302,200.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1908—	Total number of racing days 111	Total amount of money distributed $320,000.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1909—	Total number of racing days 112	Total amount of money distributed $310,000.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1910—	Total number of racing days 112	Total amount of money distributed $310,000.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1911—	Total number of racing days 110	Total amount of money distributed $302,200.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1912—	Total number of racing days 109	Total amount of money distributed $297,200.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1913—	Total number of racing days 108	Total amount of money distributed $292,200.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1914—	Total number of racing days 107	Total amount of money distributed $287,200.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1915—	Total number of racing days 106	Total amount of money distributed $282,200.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1916—	Total number of racing days 105	Total amount of money distributed $277,200.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1917—	Total number of racing days 104	Total amount of money distributed $272,200.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1918—	Total number of racing days 103	Total amount of money distributed $267,200.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1919—	Total number of racing days 102	Total amount of money distributed $262,200.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.
1920—	Total number of racing days 101	Total amount of money distributed $257,200.00	Purses averaged about $450 each.

$10,000,000 AID FOR VETERANS

Red Cross Provides Friendly Service of Many Kinds to Army of Disabled.

BULK OF WORK BY CHAPTERS

2,397 of These Are Helping Ex-Servicemen Obtain Benefits U. S. Provides.

One field of Red Cross service alone, that of assisting disabled veterans of the World War, entails expenditures $10,000,000 greater than the aggregate receipts of the Annual Roll Call of 1920. The American Red Cross announced in a statement urging a widespread increase in membership of the Annual Roll Call, November 11 to 14. At the present time National Headquarters and the national-wide chain of Chapters of the Red Cross is spending approximately $10,000,000 annually for the relief of disabled ex-servicemen and their families, while the aggregate receipts from last year's Roll Call were approximately $4,000,000. It is in the 2,397 of the 3,000 Red Cross Chapters which still are helping solve the veteran's problem of adjusting himself to a normal civilian status that the greater part of the cost of this service is borne. Of the total amount spent for veteran relief last year, National Headquarters expended a total of more than $2,000,000, while the remaining disbursement of approximately $7,000,000 represents the contribution of Chapters in this country who are doing the lion's share of the work in providing the aid sorely needed by these men and their families.

An Ever Expanding Problem

That the problem of the disabled ex-servicemen is ever expanding and probably will not reach the peak before 1925, is the assertion of world-famous Government officials and that 1,397 Red Cross Chapters regard it as their most important work is evidence that the expansion is to some extent confined to a particular section but is, on the contrary, almost world-wide. At the end of the fiscal year, June 30, 1921, there were 24,000 disabled ex-servicemen in the United States, Public Health Service, Contract and Government Hospitals and Soldiers Homes, and that number is increasing at a rate of 1,000 a month.

Thousands of these men receiving medical treatment, compensation and vocational training from the Government today, started their efforts to obtain them through the Red Cross Chapter. The chapter acting as the disabled man's agent to obtain the Government's aid is the man's most important link to the procedure necessary to gain for him that which is provided him by Federal statute. His applications for compensation, medical treatment and training are properly filed with the aid of the Red Cross Chapter.

Many Forms of Assistance

If there is delay before the man's claim is acted upon, the Red Cross Chapter lends the man money to meet the imperative needs of himself and his dependents. Most vital to the man's getting full benefit from the Government's care is keeping his mind free from worry about his home. Keeping the veteran's family from hardship of ever being blind and infirming him of his welfare is another province of the chapter. Free from fear on this score, the man's recovery and advancement usually is rapid.

Every month during the last year, the American Red Cross has given service of one kind or another to an average of 130,315 former service men and their families. An indication of the extent of the faith reposed in the Red Cross Chapter is to be found in the fact that there were 336,544 requests for friendly aid in the solution of personal problems.

448 Workers in Hospitals

While the men prior to entering Government care dealt largely with the chapter, afterward he comes into contact with the service provided by National Headquarters. There are 448 Red Cross workers in the United States, Public Health Service and contract hospitals and other institutions in which these men are being cared for, whose duty is to provide for his recreation, help him with his compensation claims, help him in touch with his family, in short, meeting his every need outside of that provided by the Government. While these are a few of the responsibilities of the National Organization, they are by no means all. Among other Red Cross accomplishments for the year are:

It handled 78,789 allotment and allowance claims.
It delivered through its chapter organization $1,655 allotment checks to veterans who had moved from the addresses furnished to the Bureau of War Risk Insurance.
It provided a special fund of $10,000 for medical assistance to men under medical training.
It made $2,495 loans totaling $10,000 to men taking medical training, of which $2 per cent has been repaid.
